

ESSTC Graduates One Of Largest Classes In History

170 Receive Degrees At Services

EAST Stroudsburg State Teachers College graduated one of its largest classes in history yesterday.

There were 170 members of the class. Of that total, 74 received degrees of Bachelor of Science in Health Education and the remaining 96 received the degree of B.S. in Education.

Main speaker was Dr. Paul N. Elbin, president of West Liberty State College, Wheeling, W.Va. Dr. Elbin chose "Things I Wish Had Been Included in My Education" as his theme.

He urged the graduates to "prepare the curriculum today for your education from now on."

"I wish when I had been younger that I had put away more of the literary treasure that is our proper heritage. Some things have been as well said as they will ever be," he said.

Opposition Dr. Elbin noted that some educators and churches are now opposed to "memorization" as a means of learning.

"But there is perhaps no better way to teach character than to immunize the soul against vulgarity and obscenity by accustoming the mind to nobility."

"There isn't necessarily any great similarity between schooling and education," he went on. "Today we give a degree to almost anyone who has the patience to stay in college four years."

This year, he said, "West Liberty is holding back five seniors from graduation" because they cannot spell simple words; e.g. in a theme a student spelled "breaks" for "brakes" and said he had a "study" girl.

He urged that graduates learn to place a deeper emphasis and meaning on patriotism. "Many people think that America is the only country in which the people have freedom. It took Sputnik I to wake us up to the fact that other people have brains," he said.

"Surely the people of England or Switzerland... exercise their rights of freedom as much as we do. He went on to warn of present-day world conditions, pointing out that "a divided France" could tear apart the whole Atlantic Alliance and "World War III may move from what we euphemistically call a 'cold war' into a hot war again."

He concluded by urging the seniors to make their faith a living thing and to understand that "there is a unity of mankind... and this is the heart of the Hebraic-Christian tradition."

Honor Students Two of the 170 students were graduated with highest honor—a grade average of 2.75 or above. They were Barbara Ann Hendrie and Frank Swider.

Other honor students were: High honor—Jeanette R. Cramer, Kathryn Keat Hilyard (in absentia, the first student to graduate with a B.S. in education-public school nursing); Rosemary Lobb, all with grade averages of 2.5 to 2.75.

Honor—Leonard Balch Jr., Harry Crookham, Faye Dallmeyer, Florence Eckhart, Joan A. Fischl, Allan Andrew Glass, Suzanne E. Good, Ralston Jones, Joan Leopold, Joyce C. Mazurik, Marian S. Mery, Jeanette A. Miller, Marilyn M. Miller, Martha Miller, Kathleen M. Najaka, Ronald Rufe, Jane Slutter, Jane Spanitz, John F. Stachura, Carol Sue Underwood, Geraldine Marie Votral, Mark Walp, Joseph E. Walsh, Sandra Wertman and Sylvia Younklin.

One of the graduates, Richard W. Lamey, was commissioned a lieutenant in the U.S. Marine Corps during the commencement exercise. He was sworn in and commissioned by Capt. George J. DeLong, himself a graduate of the local college.

Dr. Lefroy J. Koehler, president of the college, conferred degrees upon the candidates. Honor students were announced by Dr. Francis B. McGarry, dean of instruction.

New Fighting Adds To France's Trouble

LONG LINE FOR A GRAY DAY—Graduating seniors filed into East Stroudsburg State Teachers College auditorium yesterday afternoon to receive their degrees. This was first time college has done away with baccalaureate service and held only commencement program and scheduled latter for Sunday. Auditorium was crowded to "standing room only" point. U.S. Offers New Appeal To Russia

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States yesterday disclosed a new appeal to Moscow to abolish the barriers which restrict travel for foreigners in Russia. It offered to open up areas in this country which have been closed to Russians in retaliation.

State Department officials hope this time they may get somewhere. They have been trying to break down the Soviet travel restrictions for years.

In the new proposal, the United States offers 41 different package deals by which American areas now closed to Soviet citizens would be thrown open in return for the opening of comparable Soviet areas to Americans.

The restrictions in this country were instituted solely in retaliation for Soviet bans to American travel, while the restrictions in Russia apply to all foreigners.

The new U.S. approach was made in a note delivered to the Soviet Embassy in Washington Thursday and published by the State Department Sunday.

In it, the United States called once more for elimination of all travel restrictions in both countries. But it added that since the Soviets had not even replied to a similar proposal of last Nov. 11, the United States was offering certain new and more limited deals in the hope that some or all of them would be acceptable and that travel bans could thereby be progressively abandoned.

Groupings The note proposed opening up any or all of 13 different groupings of U.S. territory in return for 13 matched Soviet areas of roughly comparable size.

For example, the United States offered to open up all of Maryland if the Soviets would remove the barriers from American travel in the oblasts—provinces—of Moscow, Kaluga and Vladimir.

The United States also offered to open any or all of 25 American cities to Soviet travel if the Soviets would open matched Soviet cities. For example, Los Angeles for Novosibirsk and Louisville, Ky. for Tomsk.

In a third group of proposed trades the United States offered to open three different groupings of highways in return for Soviet removal of restrictions on travel on certain of its auto routes.

State Department officials said the Soviet restrictions were first imposed early in World War II and were tightened up after the war.

State Among Highway Leaders HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Highways Department said yesterday, Pennsylvania was second only to Texas in programming special federal funds for primary, secondary and urban road construction.

The special funds were appropriated in April as an anti-recession move. Of a $19,217,078 allocation, the state has programmed use for more than $5,115,729, the department said.

Confair Granted Leave Of Absence From Position As Head Of Keystone Shortway

Z. H. CONFAIR of Williamsport Saturday was granted a leave of absence from his position at president of the Keystone Shortway Assn.

The action was taken at a meeting of directors of the group at the Williamsport Elks Club.

Attending from Monroe County were Clifford L. Cramer, president of the Monroe County chapter of the association and State Rep. Hanford L. Cleveland.

Confair told the group he felt he should vacate the post because of his Republican candidacy for State Senate from the 24th District.

Highway He said he wanted to maintain the association's bipartisanism in its drive to speed construction of the highway between Stroudsburg and Sharon.

Attorney Martin D. Cohn of Hazleton, an association vice president, was named to take over Confair's duties.

The meeting reviewed last week's public hearing at Tannersville and discussed plans to expedite other scheduled hearings on the Shortway route.

Also discussed was the attitude of Philadelphia toward the highway and plans to present new facts and figures in an effort to change the thinking of some Philadelphians that the Shortway constitutes a threat to that community.

Senate To Fight For Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt.) said yesterday he expects the Senate will turn back any effort to cut off or restrict foreign aid or trade with Communist Yugoslavia, Poland and other Iron Curtain countries.

Aiken joined with other members of the Foreign Relations Committee last Friday to give President Eisenhower broad discretionary power in a new foreign aid bill authorizing $3,707,100,000 for the next fiscal year starting July 1.

Senate Republican leader William F. Knowland of California and Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.), chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee, have served notice they want to halt all aid to Yugoslavia and other Communist countries.

They are expected to push these efforts when the Senate opens debate on the new aid program this week.

Aiken, in an interview, said this would be a mistake.

"The Soviet has been trying to muscle into Latin America and other areas, including the Middle East, with trade and aid programs," Aiken said. "It would be a serious blunder for the United States to surrender by hampering our own programs."

"Some of the strongest bulwarks against Communist expansion in Europe now are Poland, Yugoslavia and other satellites that show independence from the Kremlin, even though they are under Communist rule," he said.

Written into the Senate committee bill was an amendment by Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) which would permit the President to furnish assistance to any Communist nation except Russia, Red China and North Korea.

He could do this by determining that the country involved to attain independence and reduce its economic ties with the Soviet bloc.

Existing law permits such aid only if the President certifies to Congress that it would be in the security interests of the United States.

Couple Killed In Accident WILLIAMSPORT (AP)—An auto collided with a tractor-trailer at a South Williamsport intersection Saturday, killing a Williamsport couple.

Police Chief Alfred S. Kaufman, of South Williamsport, identified the victims as Ralph B. and Delilah Quigg, both of Williamsport. The truck driver, Chares E. Hasel, of Westminster, Md., escaped injury.

Tunnel Repair Bids Sought HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission yesterday called for bids June 16 for repairs on the Lehigh Tunnel on the northeast extension of the toll highway.

The tunnel, which has leaked water since its opening, was the subject of controversy last winter because ice formations created hazardous driving conditions.

REP. FRANCIS E. WALTER (seated, center) was honored at testimonial dinner Saturday night at Mount Airy Lodge. Slate Belt Group Pays Tribute To Rep. Walter SWIFTWATER — A $4,000 check, the gift of area blouse manufacturers, was presented to the Muhlenberg Medical Center building fund Saturday night here at Mount Airy Lodge.

The money was given in honor of Congressman Francis E. Walter, of Easton, to commemorate his 25 years of service in the U.S. House of Representatives.

The presentation took place as the highlight of a testimonial dinner for Rep. Walter which was given by the Slate Belt Apparel Contractors Assn., Inc., representing 110 blouse mills in the region centering around Bangor.

More than 300 persons were on hand when Mariano Saveri, Bangor, president of the association, announced the gift. Warren R. Robert, director, accepted the check on behalf of the medical center.

The money, Roberts said, will be used to finance the construction of one room of the proposed new hospital north of Allentown and Bethlehem. Nearly two million dollars have been raised to date, he disclosed, and said construction is expected to start this summer.

Saveri also presented a sterling silver coffee urn to the congressman after praising his long and distinguished service on behalf of the 15th District (Northampton, Carbon and Monroe counties).

Congressman Walter, who is marking his 64th birthday today, thanked the association for its thoughtfulness in honoring the memory of Henry Melchior Muhlenberg — a Pennsylvanian who was "one of many examples of what made America great"—and then touched briefly on his (Walter's) role as chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

"I am most proud of the enemies I have made; I feel I have accomplished something" as evidenced by the hatred certain people have expressed toward him, the congressman said.

Rep. Walter chided the "left-wing press" for saying he had the temerity to subpoena a "great industrialist" (Cleveland capitalist Cyrus Eaton) to appear before the committee.

The action, he said, was that of the whole committee, not just himself, but that fact did not make any difference to his enemies. They hope to minimize the work of the entire committee by destroying its chairman, he added.

Without mentioning Easton by name, Walter declared the industrialist made a derogatory remark about one of America's great institutions, the FBI, and the committee just wants to give him a chance to explain the basis for his statement.

Praise for Walter also came from an "old friend," Judge J. Cullen Ganey of the U.S. District Court for Eastern Pennsylvania. He described the Easton congressman as one of the eight most influential men in Washington.

Judge Clinton B. Palmer of Northampton County Common Pleas Court was toastmaster. Guests who were introduced included President Judge William G. Barthold and Judge Carleton T. Woodring, both of Northampton County; Mrs. Helen Sutton, Rep. Walter's secretary in Easton, and officers of the association.

Emergency Session Set For Assembly

PARIS (AP)—Troubles multiplied by the hour yesterday for the embattled government of Premier Pierre Pflimlin.

Rightist insurgents in Algeria and Corsica claimed new successes. They said their movement to return Gen. Charles de Gaulle to power was spreading.

Renewed fighting between French and Tunisian forces in southern Tunisia raised grave problems.

The Communist-led General Confederation of Labor—France's biggest union—called for its members working in government arsenals to "meet immediately to plan counteraction against the Fascist aggression."

The pressure mounted on the eve of an emergency session today of the National Assembly, called to deal with the spreading insurrection.

The session was called late Saturday by Premier Pflimlin after Algeria-type public safety committees, apparently directed by Algerian insurgents, took control in Constantine.

Insurrection In an emergency session, Pflimlin's Cabinet Saturday branded the Corsica move seditious insurrection. In an extraordinary radio broadcast to his country after Saturday midnight, Pflimlin said the move threatened civil war in France.

After another emergency session Sunday, the Cabinet declared government officials and military personnel who took part in the Corsica uprising will be fined and jailed.

As Pflimlin and his Cabinet struggled to assert its authority there were these developments that pounded at the Paris government:

1. French labor unions issued calls for their members to meet Monday and deal with what they called plots threatening the republic. The Communist-led General Confederation of Labor singled out workers in government arsenals in an announcement calling for them to plan to defend the republic "against Fascist aggression." The Communists call De Gaulle's Fascists. "Nobody was certain what action the arsenal workers might take. Union bosses refused to explain.

Socialist and Catholic unions also called their members to meet "to mobilize against the plots threatening the republic."

The autonomous Federation of National Education issued a statement calling on "all democratic organizations to align themselves at the side of the legitimate government against the extremists of Algeria and their accomplices in metropolitan France."

A clash of De Gaulle supporters with workers of the three big unions, including non-Communist workers, which strongly oppose De Gaulle, pointed up the danger of bloodshed.

2. The French naval commander in the Mediterranean voiced support for the Algerian insurgents. The Paris government, in turn, ordered four of its ships just back from Atlantic Alliance Mediterranean exercises, to sail from Malta for France.

3. Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba's government charged that French planes flew in waves from Algerian fields to bomb Tunisian outposts. He charged the air attacks came after new clashes between Tunisian and French troops in southern Tunisia. A state of emergency was declared in that North African nation.

State Parks Dedication HARRISBURG (AP)—The State will dedicate new state parks at Gouldsboro Lake, in Monroe and Wayne Counties, Little Pine Lake, Lycoming County, and Hills Creek in Tioga County on Memorial Day.

Gov. Leader and other state officials will participate in the dedication of Gouldsboro Lake Park.

Leader predicted that the park—with its 300-acre lake, beach area, and boating, picnic and bathroom facilities—"will be one of the most heavily used recreational areas in our state park system."

Khrushchev Sends Wire To Tito

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev sent "cordial congratulations" to President Tito on his 66th birthday yesterday and said he'd like to patch up their feud.

The feud, recently revived by the Kremlin itself, is based on Tito's refusal to surrender Yugoslav independence.

Wording Khrushchev's telegram said: "As to your birthday, receive my cordial congratulations and wishes for happiness and prosperity of the fraternal Yugoslav people."

"I express the hope that the misunderstandings which exist between the union of Communists of Yugoslavia and the Communist party of Soviet Union and other fraternal parties, which are no secret, will be overcome."

"The overcoming of these misunderstandings would contribute to the rapprochement of our countries as well as to the further strengthening of the unity of Socialist-Communist forces in the world, which are a powerful pledge for peace in the entire world."

Albrightsville Man Found Dead In Family Automobile

ALBRIGHTSVILLE — Funeral services for Nathan S. Altomose, a 57-year-old resident found dead at his home early Saturday morning, will be held Wednesday afternoon.

His body was found slumped over in his car shortly after 7 a.m.

The discovery was made by an unidentified neighbor. Carbon County Coroner Dr. James J. Dougherty of Jim Thorpe issued a verdict of suicide due to gun shot wounds.

A native of Albrightsville, he was the son of the late Milton and Ellamanda Meekes Altomose. He was a self-employed truck operator most of his life.

Survivors In addition to his wife, Mrs. Ariene Zacharias Altomose, he is survived by two daughters, Barbara and Gloria Altomose, all at home; one sister, Mrs. Bertha Leyer of Albrightsville; and three brothers, William and Russell, both of Long Pond, and Arthur of Colorado Springs, Col.

The funeral services will be held from the Hunsicker-Hamm Funeral Home, Brodheadsville, at 2 p.m., Wednesday. Interment will be in the Gilbert Cemetery.

Friends may pay their respects after 7 p.m., tomorrow, at the funeral home.

Chamber Of Commerce Plans Open House

AN OPEN house from noon to 2 p.m. today will mark formal opening of the new Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce and Vacation Bureau offices at 723 Main St.

The program will include a buffet luncheon following a meeting of the chamber's board of directors at 11 a.m. in the new second floor conference room.

The expanded facilities are expected to expedite the work of the chamber in handling inquiries, industrial expansion and resort services.

J. Horace Strunk, executive secretary of the chamber, and members of his staff will be present to greet the guests.

Enterprising Boon To Resort Trade

SEASONALITY and the need for modern facilities and services are the major problems of the resort industry in the Philadelphia Federal Reserve District, including the Poconos.

On the brighter side, the bank reports, enterprising operators have reduced seasonality materially by offering special off-season rates, promoting winter sports and scheduling special events.

The report is the second published by the bank on the $600,000,000 travel and vacation industry in the bank's area. It appears in the May issue of the bank's "Business Review."

Of the Poconos, the bank writes:

"The Poconos have a few establishments that remain open during the winter months. Hunting, hiking and skiing are off-season attractions and so is honeymooning. Despite all the conquests made by June brides, marriage overtakes a surprisingly large number of people in other months."

The bank points out that the annual off-season hibernation means that large capital investments go unused for eight to 10 months and labor is also idled, although some of the off-season unemployment is voluntary.

Falling temperatures and the public school calendar are generally regarded as insuperable obstacles to the expansion of the resort season," the bank says.

"Obstacles though they are, the fact is that some enterprising resort operators have lengthened their season in a variety of ways. Many of these take the form of special events fitted into the calendar when school children have holidays and long weekends. Moreover, there are sporting events for all seasons of the year."

The bank points out that today's vacationers have purchasing power and probably live in a suburban home with modern facilities. When he takes his family on vacation he expects to find most of these conveniences to which the family is accustomed.

"In each resort area," the bank reports, "accommodations and services range from barely passing to super — from flax to deluxe. . . . With prevailing levels of income, the limited-service guest home is rapidly losing business to the modern, full-service motel and hotel. And it isn't always the largest places that are the best."

The bank cites the change that has taken place in the travel and vacation industry because of population growth, more leisure time, more money to spend and a greater desire to travel.

Air Travel

Air travel has increased the range of travel, but as long as the automobile remains the favorite mode of travel, local seashore and mountain resorts are highly favored, the bank believes.

In this respect, it wrote: "The Poconos are doubly favored. They are at the back door of New York and the northern extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike makes the Poconos easily accessible to Philadelphia vacationers."

Moreover, plans are in the making to bring the Poconos still closer to New York with a six-lane highway from the George Washington Bridge to the Delaware Water Gap.

"With such huge markets so close at hand, the major resorts of this district couldn't possibly be better located."

"If they provide the kinds of services and facilities that vacationers expect, the industry should prosper, provided sufficient lines of communication between the industry and its market are established."

The bank also cites the need for concerted effort on the part of the industry to bring to the attention of the greatest number of people precisely what facilities are available and where and at what rates and what special attractions are offered.

Dr. Shafer Reelected

DR. FLOYD W. Shafer, of Stroudsburg, was reelected president of the Board of Trustees of East Stroudsburg State Teachers College at the board's annual reorganization meeting recently at the college.

Mrs. Kathryn B. Edwards, also of Stroudsburg, was re-elected secretary. Elected treasurer is Joseph J. Garrity, of Drums.

Aside from the election, the business session was devoted to the transaction of routine matters, a college spokesman said yesterday.

TULLE AND LACE—Finalists in the contest to pick "Miss Scranton Press Photographer" are shown on the lawn at High Point Inn prior to final judging Saturday.

Old Forge Girl Wins Pageant

By Leonard Randolph
MOUNT POCONO — Press photographers from the Scranton district chose a pert, rosy-cheeked young lass from Old Forge as their reigning beauty this weekend.

Named "Miss Scranton Press Photographer" by a panel of five photographer-members was Jackie Corbett, 18.

Second place winner, the judges said, was Agnese Froncek, also 18, of Olyphant. Scranton's Carolee Secor, 18, ran third in a field of 21.

Out of the final judging, but rated high by judges were Monroe County's two entries, Gloria Bryson, 20 and Jeanne Poortstra, also 20.

This year's chapter beauty contest and outing were held at High Point Inn in Mount Pocono. The Inn is now under management of George Colovos, well-known Scranton restaurant owner.

The beauty pageant, staged around the Inn's outdoor pool in the cloudy coolness of a changing afternoon, was the highlight of the weekend.

An estimated 340 press photographers and their guests were on hand.

Amateur judging was the main event of the bystander's afternoon. Although the local delegation could plead guilty to some prejudice in the matter, there were grumbles of disagreement from several other areas.

Among those on hand from The Stroudsburgs: Les Carlton, The Daily Record, who is first vice president of the Scranton Press Photographers Association; Mrs. Horace Westbrook, Mrs. Ruth Brown and James Riley, also of The Daily Record; Joe Whalen, Ed Somers, Mr. and Mrs. John Ferree, Radio Station WVPO; George Graff, composer of well-known songs, Mr. and Mrs. J. Horace Strunk, Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce, and others.

Highlights of the show (for one observer, at least) were these:

Stroudsburg's Gloria Bryson, stopping several times to pose for photographs for the two or three young amateur photographers on the lawn to the rear of the pool. Miss Bryson's poised and loveliness won appreciative comments from nearly everyone attending, especially when she made her second appearance in a blue evening gown.

The assurance and beauty of Jackie Coyne, 21, Wilkes-Barre, rated by all of the local delegation as a winner, too, but still out of the money in the judging.

Jeanne Poortstra's radiant smile and personality throughout the rigors of both events.

Master of ceremonies for the pageant was Robert McHale, Scranton. Among official visitors were Scranton Mayor James Hanlon, Mount Pocono Burgess Gerald Possinger, Robert "Pop" Jones of Scranton who represented Gov. Leader and "Miss Pittsburgh" against whom the Scranton winner will compete in the National contest in Minneapolis June 17-21.

Welcome news to local delegation members was the announcement by Charles T. Higgins, president of the Mid-Atlantic Region, NPPA, that he, Colovos and others intend to campaign to bring the 1959 National Press Photographers Association convention to the Pocono Mountains.

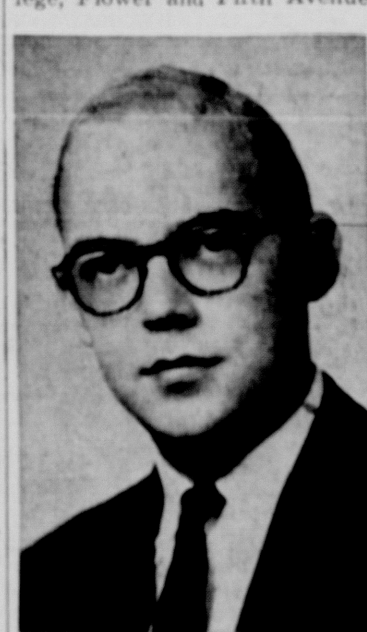

"MISS SCRANTON PRESS PHOTOGRAPHER"—Miss Jackie Corbett of Old Forge, chosen "Miss Scranton Press Photographer" Saturday at High Point Inn, is flanked by Robert McHale, Scranton; Alwyn Davies, Peckville, president of the National Press Photographers Assn.; Charles Higgins, Philadelphia, chairman of District Three, and A. J. Sandone, Scranton, during the pageant banquet.

Two Hurt In Auto Accident

TWO PERSONS were injured in a two-car accident on Route 209 between Selma and McHenry at 2 p.m. yesterday.

State Police of the Stroudsburg barracks identified the drivers as James A. McAndrew, 25, Bronx, New York City, and James Ehas, 67, Philadelphia.

Dislocated Hip
Ehas sustained what a spokesman at Monroe County General Hospital described as "minor injuries," while Joseph Baumgartner, 67, also of Philadelphia, is being treated for a dislocated hip. Both are in satisfactory condition.

Troopers said Ehas, driving west, attempted to pass the McAndrew car, went out of control and struck a tree. Damage was estimated at $50 to McAndrew's car, while Ehas' vehicle was demolished.

Both major political parties named new county chairmen at last Tuesday's election setting the stage for a change of pace in campaign methods leading up to the vital General Election in November.

The Democrats, who boast something like a 10-7 edge in voter registrations, chose John A. Brislin as their chairman to succeed Van D. Yetter, who relinquished the position to contest Rep. Hanford L. Cleveland, Republican, for the seat in the General Assembly.

Brislin has been in many a campaign, either as a candidate or a one-time Democratic chairman, and is well known throughout all the voting districts in the county.

The Republicans selected the young and energetic Gerald A. Snyder, a school teacher, in an election which saw the defeat of the veteran chairman, B. K. Williams, for the first time since 1945.

Snyder is completing his second year as State Republican Committeeman from Monroe County and is also an experienced party campaigner.

Both new chairmen must now face up to the task of healing the wounds inflicted within their parties during the primary campaigning. Only by uniting their forces can the new leaders hope to be successful in November.

In this respect, they face the same job which confronts party chieftains on the statewide level.

Democrats will be trying to woo back the sizable segment of voters which broke with the party organization and supported Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman against David L. Lawrence for the gubernatorial nomination.

Similarly, the Republicans will be bidding to regain the substantial bloc of voters who cast ballots for Harold E. Stassen and William M. Livengood in unsuccessful efforts to defeat the organization choice for governor, Arthur T. McGonigle.

Yes, the new county chairmen have a real job ahead of them to persuade all the factions to close ranks behind the party nominees. How successfully intra-party differences are composed will be a determining factor in November's success or failure.

Opinions Of Other Editors

Insurance For Outer Space

Selling insurance is usually a pretty serious business. The Kemper insurance group, however, has come up with an advertising folder, in the form of a policy, that's worthy of a chuckle in these days of the sputniks.

The tongue in cheek policy insures space travelers against all unearthly accidents. Ultimate benefits cover one way trips. Two stage benefits cover flight light returns (returning without all members).

Partial benefits include such necessities as space station emergency treatment, ionine for ionospheric cuts and space helmets for those with heads in the clouds.

Some of the occupations that are denied the protection include space cadets, space salesmen, window washers and cab drivers. The company reserves the right to cancel the policy at any time by notice in sky writing.

Well, the Kemper people are just kidding, of course. But judging from recent events it won't be too long before there will be a need for such a policy.—Milwaukee Journal.

The Pennsylvania Story

Both Parties Hopeful

Harrisburg — Pennsylvania's political fascists — less than a week after their organizational successes at the polls — are beginning to bulge at the seams.

Unquestionably there is modestly good reason for this show of optimism on the part of both Democratic and Republican warhorses around Capitol Hill.

Having had adequate time to evaluate and digest the primary returns of a week ago, the old pols of both parties are convinced their respective slates have a better than even chance of slithering down the homestretch in November—the winner.

Second-guessing the election results of last week's balloting seemingly would substantiate this feeling of optimism strategists on both sides are exuding.

The fact that these organization slates won over sometimes spirited and determined opposition is one thing — but the clincher to many is not so much the bare fact that a win was accomplished as the almost smothering manner in which victory finally emerged.

Even Chance

It has reached the point where Keystone State Democrats honestly and for perhaps the first time feel that they have an even chance of remaining in the gubernatorial suite atop Capitol Hill.

Republicans by the same token, after taking a long look at the returns from last Tuesday's run-off, are equally convinced that 1958 is marked down in the book as their year to return to the sanctum they were forced to vacate to Democrats four years ago.

The remarkable part indeed is that this is the first time within the past two generations that both major parties actually feel each has an equal chance.

Under the circumstances the fate of the hand rubbing on both sides of the fence is not too difficult to understand.

Democrats admittedly are the registration underdog—but this does not particularly concern them.

It is true they do not have the controlling registration edge in their favor as yet—but the fact remains that in the past four years they have narrowed the GOP registration edge sharply from a near million to slightly more than 300,000.

Their position revolves around one of a relative show of strength indicated at the polls last week. Until Tuesday there was a definite air of uncertainty as to what the Furman-Bowers opposition might mean.

They did not doubt that the Lawrence-Leader slate would emerge on top for the flag planting ceremony, but the degree of victory remained the imponderable factor. They now have their answer, regarded as — negligible.

Republicans are in similar fettle. Organization GOP stalwarts were never in doubt as to who would win. The only concern centered around — by how much.

For example, the gubernatorial aspirations of both Harold E. Stassen and William M. Livengood, Jr., were on the quarry list. The point of main concern was to what extent would each lose.

Republican old pols around Capitol Hill see in the losses of their opponents a parallel loss in opposition to the organization slate on the part of Republicans throughout the state as a whole.

While they have lost the sharp registration edge of four years ago, the conviction is firm now that even the reduced edge they now are forced to live with will be adequate to offset the inevitable vote-plus automatically carried by an administration in power. Unquestionably the upcoming fall campaign will be about as even-matched and tough as Pennsylvanians have enjoyed in many a year.

Abigail Van Buren

All About Rhubarb

Dear Abby: Just read the letter from Rhubarb Pie Maker and am greatly surprised that her husband yelled at her for making rhubarb pie. I've just returned from an annual check-up at Mayo Clinic and a very famous physician told me that rhubarb was God's gift to humanity. He said it's the first edible plant to grow in the Spring and one of the finest tonics a person can take. My father lived to be 85 and my mother 89 and they never had any indigestion, constipation or stomach trouble. I know it was because we had rhubarb at our table daily. A. J. T.

Dear A. J. T.: I always thought rhubarb was just celery with high blood pressure, but after reading your commercial have much more respect for it. Thanks for the tip.

Dear Abby: In a recent column you referred to a person who has been twice married and twice divorced as a "TWO-TIME-LOSER." I am in that category and resent it. Have been twice married and twice divorced and consider myself a "TWO-TIME-WINNER." When one WINS a divorce decree, she can hardly be called a "loser." I would appreciate a retraction.

A TWO-TIME WINNER

Dear Two-Time: In MY book when a person wins a divorce—EVERYBODY loses.

Dear Abby: I was and still am very much in love with a girl. She said she loved me, too, but I found out she had lied to me about many things. I tore up her picture, but I can't tear up the picture I have of her in my heart. Please tell me how to get over loving her?

BROKEN-HEARTED

Dear Broken: Quit brooding—get interested in somebody (or something) else. Time is a marvelous healer.

Dear Abby: I have just a daughter just out of High School who would give a lot for a job in our local dime store. But do you think they would put her on? Oh, no! They have a bunch of old, grey-haired clerks who I am sure must have husbands who can support them. That's the reason so many young people can't get work. Do you think this is right? UP IN ARMS

Dear Up: Most "old, grey-haired ladies" who work in dime stores work there because they HAVE to, not because they WANT to. You never know what's cooking in the other person's kettle till you lift the lid.

Dear Abby: My husband and I have been married for two years. When we got engaged I paid for the rings. He asked if he could "borrow" the money. So far he hasn't paid it back yet or even mentioned it. He is a wonderful husband so I wouldn't want to start a big fuss over it but do you think he has really forgotten?

MRS. N.

Dear Mrs. N.: I don't know whether he has "forgotten"—but if he does, I'd forget it.

Confidential to "Generous and Broke": Give credit when credit is due—and also collect it when it's due.

The Meat Upon Which This Caesar Feeds!
George Sokolsky Says...

What Do You Know

One of the experiences which every commentator on life encounters is the assertion that while he may know what he is talking about occasionally, he knows nothing about this or that particular subject, especially when what he says may affect someone's cash income.

For instance, I recently wrote about some theories that social workers hold and upon me descended an avalanche of vituperation, all to the point of my knowing nothing about gangs, gangsters, social workers and such. Maybe, I was born with a platinum spoon in my mouth.

According to the National Association of Social Workers, Connecticut Chapter I'm a hell of a guy because I do not agree that it is the function of society to mollycoddle bad boys and girls. Says M. Dovernman, chairman of Public Relations and Interpretation Committee, "... It is also proper for the public to expect from commentators like Mr. Sokolsky that they move on beyond their anger to offer outlines for constructive action to deal with the problems they write about."

One Suggestion

Sure, I have a constructive suggestion. It is for the police to grab a show-off gangster, especially a teen-ager, and give him a good, old-fashioned whacking the way his father ought to do if the fellow ever had a father.

I have known gangs all my life. I lived, as a boy, in a part of New York where gangs abounded. On Pitt Street was the Kid Twist Gang; on Mulberry Street, the Paul Kelly Gang. South of them was what was left of the Five Points Gang. In Chinatown, girls were being lured into vice.

I cite these not to show that my memory is good but to describe the environs. In the yard of the public school to which I went on Rivington Street, there were fellows who taught others to be pickpockets. Out of such folks came Gurrah and Lepke who organized Murder, Inc., in Brownsville, which is part of Brooklyn.

Sure, I know gangs and I know the difference in character between the gangs of this generation and that. In those days, a gang might steal but the boys did not rape. The boys never killed, although they picked pockets. And they feared the law.

It was only during the Prohibition period that the law came to mean nothing. The good boys and the bad boys in my younger years respected the cops; today, a little punk is ready to fight it out with a cop.

They would have been too proud. I do not idealize the noble men and women who did so much for me and boys and girls like me. Most of them were volunteers and they gave money as well as time to help us rise out of the slums in which we lived.

And they were all Americans and believed in human liberty and dignity, and they taught us to love this country and to fight for it. Not one of them would have written a paragraph like the following:

"I should like to suggest further that you consider the inauguration of a judicious screening of Mr. Sokolsky's future work to assure factual veracity. Uncurbed, Mr. Sokolsky does harm to the public image of journalism in its various forms as an ethical, constructive profession..."

Oh dear! Oh dear!

I cannot imagine anyone in "The Educational Alliance" or "The University Settlement" or "The Boys Club" writing such words.

They would have been too proud. I do not idealize the noble men and women who did so much for me and boys and girls like me. Most of them were volunteers and they gave money as well as time to help us rise out of the slums in which we lived.

And they were all Americans and believed in human liberty and dignity, and they taught us to love this country and to fight for it. Not one of them would have written a paragraph like the following:

"I should like to suggest further that you consider the inauguration of a judicious screening of Mr. Sokolsky's future work to assure factual veracity. Uncurbed, Mr. Sokolsky does harm to the public image of journalism in its various forms as an ethical, constructive profession..."

Oh dear! Oh dear!

You're Telling Me

Texas areas have been experiencing extremely high winds, heavy falls of hail and drenching rainstorms. The Lone Star state has been having plenty of bad weather lately—and it's all been Texas size.

With Sputnik I kaput and the Navy's new Vanguard riding high and handsome, that makes the satellite score 2 to 1, favor U. S.—in the fourth inning.

To hear the way some people gripe about the weather one would come to the conclusion that that this is the very first April they ever experienced.

CUTIES

With Walter Winchell On Broadway

Desert Playground

Las Vegas thrusts itself out of the desert like a burst of daydreams. Full of lights and color, sun and sand, excitement and luxury. A patch of pleasure... From all the latitudes and longitudes have come the products which have created the spacious hotels, lavish nightclubs and plush casinos. Stroll along after dark and the blazing neon reminds you of Broadway's inferno. A frenetic, flamboyant panorama. And always, there is a teeming activity. Night and day there is action, action, action. The modern plate-glass, the chromium and massive tropical plants are all a part of the glistening landscape. Here is Funtown — shiny and bright, shrill and enervating, artful and crass, noisy and musical. Every visitor must conclude that this is one of the world's most fabulous bazaars.

The rhythm of the town plays a unique music. Lights and shadows are its instruments. So are people and buildings. A nervous tempo, frequently bewildering. Nevertheless, it is strangely fascinating and beautiful... Dominating the symphony of sounds are the very special vibrations of gambling, muffled by thick carpets. The click-whirl-and-clunk of slot machines. The rattle-rattle-rattle of dice. The clackety-clackety-click of roulette. And the clunk of the chuckaluck. In addition, there are the constant calm murmurs of the stickmen. And the groans and exclamations by losing and winning players... All this is part of the jingling tempo. The exciting atmosphere that plucks nerve strings and sings the gamblers' lullaby.

The procession of faces around the casinos. Angular, globular, old and young, smiling and grim. A parade of countless biographies, mirror of excitement and disappointment. The confusion of fleshy outlines in the constant movement... From every face emerges an extraordinary dramatic story for those who can translate it. All the emotions are encompassed—an endless tale created with every gesture and every glance. Faces frozen with concentration, reflecting fears and hopes, all eyes focused on cards, spinning wheels or rolling dice. Faces, faces, faces.

Robert S. Allen Reports...

New Vanguard Due

Washington — A new type Vanguard satellite is being readied for launching next month.

Made of plastic, instead of metal, this latest development in "man-made moons" is 15 inches in diameter, weighs approximately 15 pounds, and is designed and equipped for the express purpose of measuring the magnetic force of the earth.

The plastic Vanguard, if it works, should provide far more accurate data on the earth's magnetic force than is obtainable from a metal satellite.

Paul Crown, the man who labored so hard for Monroe County Civil Defense for several years, has a constructed another fine record of hard work.

The "other record" we have in mind is the fact that Paul has just completed 20 years as advisor to the Stroud Courier, an East Stroudsburg State Teachers College publication.

Paul, an associate professor of English, first moved into the advisory post in the Spring of 1937 and has been on the job ever since.

During Crown's reign, the Stroud Courier has taken an increasingly active role in the Columbia Scholastic Press Assn. program.

The annual Stroud Courier banquet was also instituted by Crown.

Good Evening Ladies!

Defended Against Critic

By Ken Duval

One of my favorite ladies is a fan dancer whom I've known for years and I resent the treatment she's getting from a group of club ladies in California.

These ladies are preparing a pageant for presentation at a festival.

The pageant is designed to depict the metamorphosis of entertainment from the theater of the Greeks to television. The writer of the pageant, a man, insists that it would not be complete without a segment showing the rise and fall of burlesque and the decline of false modesty and priggishness in its many forms, and also the unwholesome curiosity concerning the female figure.

When the record of this achievement is written, countless nameless showgirls, including the strippers, must be given credit for bringing their sex out from under wraps, thus freeing millions of their snobbish sisters from steel and whalebone, not to mention bustles and padding.

Therefore, I believe this fan dancer friend of mine has been fouled by these "California ladies." Had they objected to her on the grounds that she has been too long in her line of work, it might have brought a tear to my eyes and sad acknowledgment that they might be right.

Moreover, I'm sure the poor kid must have her moments of depression when it occurs to her that perhaps she no longer has a place in the scheme of things, considering the amateur competition she encounters in any fashionable gathering of ladies. There is small consolation in the knowledge that the sack is temporary. It's what's likely to follow that must scare her.

Route Changed For Annual Parade On Memorial Day

THE DECISION of Gov. George M. Leader to take part in the Memorial Day observance in the Stroudsburgs has resulted in a re-routing of the traditional parade.

Units will form at Prospect Cemetery, East Stroudsburg, at 1:30 p.m. and the parade will move at 2 p.m.

The line of march will be down Prospect St. to Anaslomink St., Crystal St., Washington St. and the bridge between the boroughs where tribute to Navy dead will be rendered.

The column will then move up Main St. to a stop at Seventh and Main for further services, continuing to Stroudsburg Cemetery for additional memorial services.

As originally scheduled, the parade units were to assemble at Maple Ave. and N. Courtland St. and move on N. Courtland St. to Crystal St. The remainder of the routing remains the same.

Prior to participating in the Memorial Day rites, Gov. Leader will break ground for the new Stroudsburg Thruway, designed to carry through Route 611 traffic around the Stroudsburgs.

Mrs. Richard Newton Mitten

Miss Charlotte M. Herman Weds Minister Of Music

Miss Charlotte Marie Herman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hermann of 102 Walnut St., East Stroudsburg, was married yesterday afternoon at 4 in the Grace Lutheran Church, East Stroudsburg to Richard Newton Mitten, son of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Mitten of 14444

North Nye, Fremont, Nebraska. Both the bride and the bridegroom are graduates of the Westminster Choir College, Princeton, N.J. and will make their home in Kansas City, Missouri where Mr. Mitten will serve the Linwood Presbyterian Church.

Rev. William F. Wunder performed the ceremony. Marvin Burke of Westminster Choir College sang "Trauma" by Wagner, and "O Lord Most Holy" by Franck. Organist was Dr. Alexander McCurdy, head of the organ department of Curtis Institute of Music. He played Bach's "God My Shepherd" before the ceremony, and Bach's "Air from the Suite in D" for the processional and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" and "Toccata" by Widor as recessional.

Floral background for the wedding included white daisies, white stock, smilax and palms. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of tulle and Alencon lace. The bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline accented with seed pearls and sequin-embroidered lace appliques. The appliques were repeated on the bell-shaped skirt which ended in a chapel length train. She wore a mantilla of hairloom lace and tulle, once worn by the bridegroom's great-grandmother.

Her cascade bouquet was of gardenias, valley lily and white roses. Joan Mitten, sister-in-law of the bridegroom was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Eleanor Herman, sister-in-law of the bride; Jane Lipe, Ann Fleming and Alberta Musto. Caroline Haas, cousin of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid.

The bride's senior attendants all wore identical gowns of romance blue velvety embroidered nylon organza in floor length. They were fashioned with scoop neckline, cap type sleeves and a large back bow with streamers. The full skirts were accented with a border of embroidered white flowers. The junior bridesmaid wore a floor-length gown of white nylon organza over romance blue tulle in a colonial style.

The matron of honor carried a cascade bouquet of yellow daisies and stock which also formed the junior bridesmaid's colonial bouquet. The bridesmaids carried cascade bouquets of white daisies, stock and smilax. All the attendants wore matching daisies in their hair.

David Mitten served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Michael Meusborn, Joseph Beck, Richard Izquierdo, and Donald and Robert Herman, brothers of the bride.

A reception was held at Mountain Manor. The bride's mother received the guests wearing a dusty rose lace dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of navy Italian silk. They both wore orchids.

The newlyweds are flying to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., for their wedding trip.

The bride is a graduate of East Stroudsburg High School, and holds both a bachelor and master's degree of music from Westminster Choir College. She was organist and choir director of St. Michael's Episcopal Church in Trenton, N.J. For traveling she wore a beige linen dress suit with an orange hat and gloves and a white orchid corsage.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Fremont High School in Nebraska and has a Bachelor of Music degree from Westminster Choir College, and was formerly minister of music of Trinity Methodist Church in Roebing, N.J.

Husbands At Juniors Dinner Party

In best bib and tucker and with their husbands in tow, the members of the Junior Woman's Club of Stroudsburg filled the dining room at Skyline Inn on Saturday night for their annual dinner dance, social postlude to the club season.

Mrs. Robert Bixler Jr., retiring president, thanked the husbands for their help in baby sitting, table setting-up and other chores for the club during the year. Guests included Mrs. Stephen Moffet, president of the Monroe County Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. Samuel O. Wells, II, president of the Senior club; Mrs. William Howard, president of the Stroud Community Club; Mrs. A. Byrd McDowell, senior advisor, and their husbands; and Mrs. Horace Westbrook of the Daily Record.

Gifts of appreciation were presented to Mrs. McDowell and Mrs. Bixler from the club, as well as a scrapbook of club activities during her term presented to Mrs. Bixler.

Mrs. William Morgan, new president, introduced her officers for next year.

Win State Prize
As a special climax to the year, Mrs. Bixler announced that the Junior Woman's Club had received second place in the junior handicraft division for their yearbook in state competition. The award will be presented at the state convention.

Dancing followed the dinner.

Newlyweds Return From Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Smith are expected back today from a wedding trip. They were married on Saturday, May 17, by Justice of the Peace Alton Jones, Porters Lake.

Mr. Smith a resident of Cresco is office manager and credit representative of Firestone. His bride is the former Margaret Winnens, of Marshall's Creek, a nurse at the General Hospital of Monroe County.

Reports For Christians In Action

Mrs. Noel Dahlander of New Milford, secretary of Christian Social Relations of the Diocese of Bethlehem, was the guest speaker at the annual Spring meeting of the Woman's Aux. of Christ Episcopal Church held in the parish hall.

She defined the meaning of Christian social relations and how they can be demonstrated in daily life.

Mrs. A. Starr, Phelps, president of the local auxiliary, summarized some of the activity: a large box of sewing materials sent to an Indian Mission; the Ingatherings of the United Thank Offering; the sending of two girls to the vocational conference at Kirby House; and the new altar hangings made by the parish sewing group directed by Mrs. William E. Andrew.

Mrs. Phelps also thanked St. Mary's Guild for their assistance to the auxiliary.

Mrs. Samuel O. Wells led the opening devotions. Mrs. Charles A. Park, new local secretary of Christian social relations, introduced the speaker.

Following her talk, members described work for the community open for volunteers:

Mrs. Harold Engraham, Gray Ladies at the hospital and country home; Mrs. Roy M. Houser, cancer dressing group; Mrs. James Kitson, the work of the YMCA and its auxiliary; Mrs. John L. Rumsey, collecting medical supplies to be sent to Miss Margaret Merrill, missionary in the Yukon.

Reports were also given of the work of other church members: Mrs. Harold S. Pond, activities in Mental Health; Mrs. LeRoy J. Koehler, Girl Scout executive; Mrs. Donald Smith, Girl Scout worker; Mrs. Philip Hardaker, den mother; Mrs. Thomas Shoemith, Red Cross home nursing instructor and activities for Canterbury Club.

Mrs. Durrell Mader, president of the Altar Guild, reported on the annual meeting at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Scranton.

Mrs. Henry Surrey and Mrs. William E. Andrew presided at the tea table and refreshments were served by the Altar Guild.

Huck-Maier Reception In Garden

Historic Christ Church, Hamilton Square, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Marguerite Maier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Maier of Scioto, to Warner B. Huck, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lloyd Huck of Wyckoff, N.J.

They were married by Rev. Robert J. Zuch on Saturday afternoon at 1 p.m. with Mrs. Jacob Hartman as organist.

A garden reception was held at the home of the bride immediately following the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of applique or gandy with a scoop neckline, fitted bodice and chapel train. A seed pearl tiara held her fingertip veil of French illusion and she carried a white prayer book covered with phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert J. Gann of Nutley, N.J., matron of honor, wore a dress of green silk organza over white, banded at the empire waistline by a white embroidered sash. She carried a bouquet of white lilies and pink sweetheart roses with cascade of English ivy and wore a wreath of ivy in her hair.

The bridesmaids, Miss Shelley Voorhis of Lloyd Harbor, N.Y., and Mrs. John J. Clapp, Manhasset, Long Island, wore similar gowns and carried bouquets of white lilies and English ivy.

Jack Maier, brother of the bride, of Paramus, N.J., was best man and the ushers were Howard Claiborn, Cedar Grove, N.J., and Charles Simonian, of Nutley, N.J.

The bride's mother wore a dress of Dior blue peau de soie with matching straw hat and shoes, beige gloves and beige cymbidium orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of pale aquamarine chiffon over tulle with matching hat and shoes, yellow gloves and yellow cymbidium orchid. Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of the Nutley, N.J. High School. The bride attended University of Colorado and the bridegroom was graduated from the University of Miami, Fla. He served in the United States Army from 1943 to 46, and from 1953 to 54, as first lieutenant in the Artillery. He is employed by the Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Co. They are spending their honeymoon in Jamaica, British West Indies.

Mrs. Katz Heads PTA Co. Council

The Monroe County Council of Parents and Teachers elected and installed the officers for the coming year at the meeting held at the Hamilton Township School. Mrs. David Mazer, a past president, installed the following:

Mrs. Lester Katz, president for the second term; Russell Pritchard, vice president; Thelma Black, treasurer; Patricia Franz, secretary; and Mrs. Clarence Plattenberg, corresponding secretary.

Edward Doney welcomed the group to the school. Russell Pritchard reported on the PTA conference in Pottsville. Mrs. Elwood German was named auditor.

Member units were urged to send representatives to the Leadership Training Institute to be held at State Teachers College, East Stroudsburg July 13 through 17.

It was also announced that the council's library of PTA books and magazines would be placed in the Monroe County Public Library for the summer use of anyone interested.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Layton Gearhart, members evaluated the program of the year on how programs were made up, who was on the program and methods of presentation.

League Of Women Voters Dinner Tuesday

The Provisional League of Women Voters will hold their first annual dinner meeting at the Penn-Stroud Hotel on Tuesday night at 6:30.

Mrs. Norman F. Patton, state president of the League of Women Voters, will be the principal speaker. Mrs. Patton was assistant director of public relations of Rockefeller Center, New York City, and is now on the publications service of the National YMCA. Mrs. Patton is past president of the League of Women Voters of Wilkes-Barre, and served as Pennsylvania state chairman of organization for the league from 1953 to 1957.

Mrs. George Levin, president of the East Stroudsburg League, will summarize the work for the first year of organization. Husbands of League members are invited to the dinner and reservations may be made directly with the Penn-Stroud.

Mrs. Claude M. Leister, Stroudsburg, is in charge of the dinner assisted by Mrs. Arthur Sice, Mrs. John Baymor, Stroudsburg; Mrs. Thomas J. Breitwieser and Mrs. Robert A. Nichols, East Stroudsburg.

To Show Slides At Family Supper

Gilbert Dunning will show colored slides of the trip to Europe he took last year at the dinner meeting of the Women's Guild of Grace Lutheran Church East Stroudsburg.

It will be the annual family covered dish supper on Tuesday night at 6 at the church, and families are asked to bring their own table service.

Book Club Wed.

Book Club will meet Wednesday night at 8 at the home of Mrs. Wallace Adams, Glen Brook Road. Each member will contribute something to the program in what is billed as "hash night."

Music Parents

Stroud Union Music Parents will meet tonight at 7:30 at the high school. The Junior Band will play, and parents are asked to bring cookies for the social hour to follow the program.

Miss Pysher Bride Of A. A. Singer

Bangor—Miss Ardy M. Pysher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy K. Pysher of Bangor RD 2, and Alfred A. Singer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Singer, Portland, were married in a candlelight service on Saturday night at 7 at the Trinity United Church of Christ, Stone Church.

Rev. Stewart H. Borne performed the ceremony with Mrs. Augustus Garis as organist and Miss Beverly Miller of Bath as soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waist-length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over tulle, fashioned with Sabrina neckline. The lace of the bodice was sprinkled with sequins and seed pearl and the bouffant skirt of tulle were appliques of sequin embroidered lace. She wore matching gauntlets and a fingertip veil of imported silk illusion which fell from a pleated crown. Her cascade bouquet was of daisies and carnations.

Miss Patricia A. Stenlake of Bangor as maid of honor wore a gown of green embroidered on white nylon with green cummerbund and matching hat and carried a bouquet of daisies. Miss Gay A. Pysher, sister of the bride, as junior bridesmaid wore a similar gown embroidered in yellow and carried white daisies in a cascade bouquet.

The flower girls, Donna and Wanda Fields, twin nieces of the bridegroom, wore polka dot nylon frocks in yellow and had baskets and headpieces of daisies. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fields, Portland.

Victor Singer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Singer, Sr., of Portland, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Victor Singer, Sr., was best man. Ushers were Dale Pysher, Bangor, brother of the bride; and the ushers were Claude Singer, brother of the bridegroom; Clyde Fields, brother-in-law, and Douglas Laise, Harmony, N. J.

A reception was held in the church social rooms. They will make their home in Bangor RD 2, after a honeymoon in the South.

The bride, a graduate of Bangor Area Joint High School is employed at Tung-Sol Electric. The bridegroom attended

12 Nurses Training To Teach

Twelve registered nurses from Monroe County are preparing to take an active role in teaching home nursing in the county. These nurses are taking the Nursing Instructors Course under Mrs. Thomas Dietrich of Bethlehem, trained American Red Cross instructor.

The course is being offered in two sessions, morning and night, at the Elks Club which has provided a room for the 30 hour course.

Graduate Training Instructors will be qualified to teach Home Nursing (Care of the Sick and Injured) to Lay people. The local Red Cross chapter is assuming full financial responsibility for the course, which is part of the disaster program of Red Cross and Civil Defense.

Mrs. Thomas Shoemith is chairman of the local Red Cross Home Nursing and Mrs. John Standford is chairman of supplies.

Registered nurses taking the course are: Vesta Sloat, Ada Altomose, Betty Leitner, Catherine Jones, Katherine Tarr, Jeanette Bentzoni, Sue Edinger, Eleanor Bentzoni, Ruth Steinhauer, Marie Altomose, Elizabeth Martin and Marie Cavanaugh.

Wyckoff

ROUND AND ABOUT WYCKOFF'S

Four members of the Mullins family visit the advertising office within a matter of hours. In the morning, Jack and son Harry; in the afternoon, Kathryn with beautiful little granddaughter, Kathleen. Somehow I can't think of my former classmate as being a grandmother—but she is, and a most attractive, happy one. When I think of Kate at all, I usually think of style (for my money she's one of the smartest women anywhere), a lovely home, and wonderful food. WHAT a cook! ... Bill Wells, merchandising manager of our Wyckoff fashion departments, tells me he's made an appointment for me to meet Cynthia Marks, a vice president and merchandising manager of Kirby Block, our New York buying office. Miss Marks was recently the subject of a wonderful interview and "success story" in the New York Journal American series on "Fashion City, U.S.A." I'm delighted as can be that I'll have the advice of this very personable and intelligent fashion expert on matters touching upon the Israeli Fashion Show being sponsored by Hadassah at Tamiment on Tuesday, June 17th ... Blanche Mackey takes "time off from her day off" to rush into the store and report that she had her picture taken. Seems she appeared in the newspaper as one of the gals receiving a diploma at the school of salesmanship conducted by Temple U. at the YMCA. That Blanche! She has more ham in her than the sandwiches at a Sunday School picnic. And as for a diploma—who's kidding whom? From the time she was old enough to talk (and there was probably NEVER a time when she couldn't) she could sell ANYONE a bill of goods ... Years ago, when I worked for the Daily Record, among the persons kindest to me were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stadden of Bartonsville. Through the years they have changed very little. Certainly not at all in appearance! The other day they celebrated their 43rd anniversary by shopping—at WYCKOFF'S. Both Mr. and Mrs. Stadden are among the ardent conservationists in this area. At the time of their marriage Mr. Stadden was living at Promised Land Pond. His bride objected to the name. "That sounds terrible on my 'at home' cards," she mourned. Her husband agreed. He consulted with the state, and had the name changed to Promised Land Lake on the maps. And he personally went the length and breadth of the area, changing all signs. Which proves once again that one must never, but never, underestimate the power of a woman ... Shirley Williams has been wearing an adorable chemise blouse in a pretty textured material these past few days, and all of us thought it was new. It's a full, chemise type blouse worn on the outside of her skirt. But Shirli says its several years old, made by Ship 'n Shore, which proves that Ship 'n Shore is one jump ahead of fashion, and that styles actually do not change quite so drastically from season to season as most customers fear ... I've had compliments galore on the knitted cardigans we sold here at 1.99 during Tobyhanna Days. Some days I wear mine as a blouse; on cool days I wear them as a sweater over a blouse. Either way they're comfortable and—I think—pretty. If you haven't already become acquainted with the excellent buys in our Sportswear department, do come in and look around. If you're living on a budget, you'll find that separates can be most economical and there are sizes for every type of figure ... Oh yes—before I forget, I should like to congratulate Bobby Westbrook, the Record Social editor, for the honors she has once again been awarded by her fellow newspapermen. I think all of us feel a great deal of gratification when the people "around home" receive the credit which we so well know and due them.—Hear Bobby on the radio, at 9:45 this morning.

Just Between Us—

—By Bobby Westbrook

Painting yourself into a corner isn't any more disastrous than writing yourself right out of space when you have a big weekend to talk about. However, I'm always glad to make way for brides.

June weather may be late but the June brides are starting early. As it turned out, it was fortunate that Marguerite Maier had her lawn reception on Saturday, and that there was such good music at Charlotte Herman's wedding on Sunday that nobody even noticed the weather.

Seemed as if about half the town was at the Press Photographer's party on Saturday at High Point, and the weather was getting about as many raves as the girls. While the men were enjoying all the pretty girls, the women were getting some sidelights on the fashions, which ranged all the way from clam-diggers to floating chignons, from very sack to sheathes.

There were some gorgeous gowns at the Junior Woman's party at Skyline, too, including the tulip-skirted number Betty Bixler wore. But Ev Primrose discovered one effective way to have men at your feet when one of her long strands of beads broke and sent hordes of them crawling under tables and around chairs. However she decided that was doing it the hard way.

Anyway, they all looked very gala—and so did their husbands.

Soviet Agrees To Sign Pact

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio said Wednesday night the Soviet Union has agreed to sign a non-aggression pact with Italy. Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko handed an official Soviet statement on the offer to Ambassador Mario di Stefano in Moscow Tuesday, the broadcast said. The draft of a proposed treaty of friendship and nonaggression also was given to DiStefano, who promised to transmit it to the Italian government, Moscow radio said.

CAR OR TRUCK OVERHEATING? Bud's Garage is prepared to solve your problem with a thorough cleaning and flow testing of your radiator. Factory method equipment gives you one stop servicing . . . cleaning, repair or core replacement if needed. Bud's Garage is located on W.

Main St. next to the diner.

Inland's Factory Method Uses Modern Equipment

FEW PEOPLE today realize that 83 percent of all autos, trucks and tractors, including those in Monroe County, are actually plugged 25 percent or more and even clogging of 25 percent can cause troubles on a long trip. Newly overhauled engines also often fail because a radiator is dirty. They also stock replacement cores for fast replacement service when needed. Bud Rehm has been thoroughly trained at the Inland Manufacturing Co.'s plant in Omaha, Neb.

When you are in need of radiator work or repair, don't settle for anything less than Inland's factory methods. Stop in and let Bud Rehm give you an estimate on the complete job.

Modern Home Improvement Guarantees Waterproofing

HOW OFTEN have you heard or perhaps thought, "I'd build a rumpus room in the basement if I could just stop that water and dampness from coming in."
Modern Home Improvement has announced the availability of a complete waterproofing service to take care of these conditions. Best of all, results are guaranteed by Michael De-Maria, owner of the concern.

The Thoro System, as it is known embodies a line of products to handle every problem of water or dampness.
Waterplug is a quick-set hydraulic compound for application where running water or seepage through masonry walls is to be stopped. Thoro Seal is a cementitious product, in powder form, and is designed to give complete satisfaction against moisture penetration.

In all there are 16 Thoro System Products designed for specific water problems.
For complete guaranteed results on your water seepage problem finishing of walls against moisture (interior or exterior), call 1247. Modern Home Improvement Co. They are equipped and staffed to do the job properly.

Roofing Defies Winds SURVEYS of hurricane and tornado-damaged areas have shown that wind-resistant applications of asphalt shingles have remained firmly in place even when houses were lifted off their foundations by the wind, or entire roof assemblies blown down.

Filter Equipment
Of extreme importance in this is your choice of filtering equipment. Of the types available, Jacuzzi's sand-type filter system is best and features a newly engineered five-way selector valve and Jacuzzi's famous selfpriming pump with integral pump strainer.

Also in the Jacuzzi equipment line are pool ladders, vacuum cleaners, diving boards, leaf skimmers, brushes and fittings.
If you're taking that exciting step and are about to look into having a swimming pool constructed you would do well to call 2369, D. Katz and Sons, and ask for Bob Collins. Bob is experienced in pool construction

By Bob Clark

Sports Editor

THERE HAS been a saying floating around since time began that a man's best friend is his dog. We won't go back that far but young baseball players of the area have a best friend in John Schoonover.

The slow-talking, quiet "father" of the diamond game hereabouts knows more in one finger about the game than most of us from our heads to our toes. Unlike the expert, though, Schoonover gives out with advice which has helped youngsters learn the rudiments of the game.

Since the Babe Ruth League's inception John has been giving out with words of wisdom which has helped, especially, the two high schools in the area's immediate vicinity.

A pitcher of renown not too long ago. (He still could give batters fits for three innings today) John has given life to the diamond sport among the teenagers during the Summer months. It is not John's fault if boys of high school age fail to take the opportunity to play baseball during the hot months.

In the 13 to 15 year group, "Schoonover" has been one of the key figures who were instrumental in keeping Babe Ruth ball afloat.

Now he has paved the way, with the help of others, to give the 15 to 19 year old boy a chance to play in faster competition—the Bi-State League—with his Stroud Juniors.

When we first came in contact with John—the late thirties—he was one of the leading hurlers for Carbondale of the semi-professional Northeastern Pennsylvania League. In those days a hurler if he was good—got anywhere from $25 to $50 for pitching. John was in that pay bracket. Let me remind, $25 to $50 in those days following the depression wasn't a paltry sum. It was a lot higher than in those D. C. B. were making.

"Schoonover" was a top right-handed moundsman for Carbondale and was so much in demand that the St. Louis Browns had "bird dogs" on his trail every time he went to the hill.

Experience is the best teacher and John has had plenty over the years. So it is no wonder that youngsters of today are reaping the harvest every time they brush their pants against the East Stroudsburg R. D. 3 resident.

He has a lot to offer and those smart enough to grab a wee bit here and there are most fortunate.

We are most fortunate too, having a man who takes such interest in the game of baseball.

Dave Nevil, former Stroudsburg High three-sport star was among 138 Lehigh University varsity Spring sports players who were honored last week at an awards presentation.

Nevil, regular first baseman on the Engineers nine, (first time he went out for the sport) was presented a varsity letter in baseball.

Dave, during the Winter months, received a varsity letter in football after a great season at end for Bill Leckonby's eleven.

Benny Rockovich, the great little halfback at East Stroudsburg Teachers during the 1946-47 seasons, visited the campus Saturday and took part in Alumni Day proceedings.

"Rocky", who was the other half of the Danny Roskos-Rockovich scoring duo for Eugene Martin's ESSTC Warriors, just returned from Europe where he spent four and one half years as a special service official for the United States government.

Ed Vogelsson, an ESSTC varsity basketballer during the years of Rockovich, also was on campus for the Alumni day proceedings.

Effort Tops Brodheadsville In Little League Struggle

EFFORT DEMONS defeated Brodheadsville Yanks 26-12 in a Little League baseball game at the Effort Park Saturday afternoon. Capitalizing on two big innings—the second and fifth and scoring a total of 20 runs—Effort went on to win before a good crowd.

Billy Martucci, shortstop, with three hits led the Brodheadsville hitters while Don Rinker, Effort first baseman, hit a home run in the fifth with two on. Larry Altomose, hard hitting Effort catcher, led the Effort parade with a single, double, homer, two walks and scored five runs in five times at bat. Barry Mackes contributed 4 hits to the cause, one a long drive over the center field fence for the Demons.

Running Catch
Lambert Murphy played a fine game at first base for Brodheadsville while Dean Feller, centerfielder, made a swell running catch in the third inning to halt an Effort rally.

Billy Chalmers, John Mills, and Billy Kresge pitched for Brodheadsville. Dale Eckman started on the hill for Effort but was relieved by lefty Barry Eckman who held the Yanks to one unearned run the rest of the game.

3rd Game
This was the third game played between these newly organized teams. Effort, managed by Louis Beers of Bethlehem, won the first game 14 to 12 and Brodheadsville, managed by William Kresge of Brodheadsville, won the second game 8 to 6.

Local Archers Dominate Shoot

Win 5 Of 9 Firsts In Inaugurals

LOCAL archers dominated the firing in the first annual Open Shoot of the Pocono Archery Association at the West Main St. range, Stroudsburg, yesterday.

Headed by Paul Bailey's victory, area bow-arrow experts copped all but four events in the nine - class classic.

Bailey of East Stroudsburg won out in the Expert A division, Jack LaBar, of Stroudsburg, headed the Expert B Class; Bob Widmer of East Stroudsburg, topped the Archer group; Roger Diehl, of Stroudsburg, was first in the Novice category; and John Hinefine of East Stroudsburg led the Junior competition.

Other winners in the 45-entry shoot which had marksmen from New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New York were Jack Gesicki, Allentown, Bowman class; Bucky Kentzel, New Jersey, Intermediate; Racial Wike, Binghamton, N. Y., Lady Expert B; and Evelyn Ladymussen, Alpha, N.Y., Lady Bowman class.

Also Placed
Area shooters who placed were:

Men: Bowmen — William Widmer, East Stroudsburg, 2nd; Woody Butz, Saylorsburg, 3rd. Archer Class — Doc Heilman, Stroudsburg, 2nd; Charles Sluter, East Stroudsburg, 3rd. Novice — D. Gerhik, Stroudsburg, 2nd; Gene Marsh, East Stroudsburg, 3rd.

Despite yesterday's early morning rain which made the range wet and troublesome, archers posted good scores throughout the day.

Twin City 7-0 Winner

TWIN CITY TV notched its second win in three games in the Eastern Fastball Softball League Saturday as Stan Thorz goose-egged Fountain Hill, 7-0, at Easton.

Thorz, who already has a no-hitter this year, allowed the Hillers only four hits.

Ray O'Melko, with a triple and single, and Joe Rickman with a double and single, paced the Twin City offense.

Allentown's Liederkantz lead the league with a 3-0 record, followed by Twin City with 2-1.

Wyckoff's, Security, Vets Cop S-Burg LL Inaugurals

WYCKOFF-SEARS, Security Trust and Veteran of Foreign Wars won opening games in the Stroudsburg Little League Saturday. W-S defeated Stout Glass, 8-0, the Trust topped Penn-Stroud Hotel, 8-3, and VFW edged First National Bank, 5-3.

Frantz pitched the shutout for Wyckoff-Sears, limiting Stout's to two hits. Frantz and Burnett led the winners attack with two hits each.

Combine On Hill
Bago and Albert combined on the hill to twirl Security Trust past Penn Stroud Hotel. Albert was the winner.

Albert and Danny Hill were Security's top batters with three and two safeties respectively. Jones garnered two of the four hits accumulated by Penn-Stroud.

Bishing Homers
Sparked by Glen Bishing's homer and double and the pitching of Chan Cahn and Muller, VFW turned back the First National. Bishing had a three-for-three day. Davies also helped the Vets with two hits.

A parade from the Penn-Stroud Hotel to LL park, kicked off the '58 season. At the park the inaugural was climaxed by the tossing out of the first ball by Stroudsburg Burgess Ed Doran.

Norkus Next For Moore

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Old Archie Moore and veteran Charley Norkus meet here Monday night in a 10-round non-title fight that both agree they need, badly.

Arch, light heavyweight champion is gunning for another crack at heavyweight titlist Floyd Patterson. Moore, who fights out of San Diego, had a chance once and was knocked out in the fifth round.

Norkus knocked out footballer Charley Powell in San Francisco in 1954 but has been on the decline much of the time since.

Each expects to weigh about 196 for the non-television affair.

Moore, whose age ranges from 41 to 44 depending on who you talk to, will be after knockout No. 127 and a new KO record. He's tied with the late Young Stribling with 126.

Easton's Sobel State Net King

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Easton's Larry Sobel is the new PIAA tennis champion thanks to his 4-6, 6-1 win over John Schuster of Lower Merion in state scholastic finals here Saturday.

The doubles crown was won by the Monaca team of Jim Baker and Joe Kurey, 6-3, 6-2, over Jim Maloney and Bill Peters of Meadville.

NEW UNIFORMS—Members of Nebel's Market softball team show off new uniforms before game at Stroudsburg playground field. Campanella Offered Post As New York Boxing Aide

NEW YORK (AP)—Governor Averell Harriman Sunday offered Roy Campanella, seriously injured Los Angeles Dodgers catcher, a post as a deputy state boxing commissioner.

And doctors told Campy, who has been paralyzed since his near-fatal automobile crash Jan. 28, that he would be allowed to sit in a wheel chair for the first time Monday.

Records in the Class B field events were set by Swarthmore's Loren Dickinson, with a vault of 12 feet, 4 1/2 inches.

Bangor Man Issues Plea Of Guilty

BANGOR — Joseph DeSantis, a 35-year-old resident, Saturday pleaded guilty to burglarizing two local establishments and was remanded to Northampton County Jail.

Police said DeSantis, who resides at 21½ Broadway, entered guilty pleas to the Eastern Sunday burglary of Heller's Cafe and the Calypso Restaurant burglary last Monday.

Arraigned before Bangor Justice of the Peace Merlin Tucker, he was remanded to jail to await bail to be set by Northampton County officials since the charges are felonies.

Bangor Police
He was arrested by Bangor Police Chief Glenwood T. Lewis and State Trooper John Uditis of the Eastern Barracks after he was allegedly found hiding in the Jacksonian Democratic Club here last Tuesday.

Police said the club steward, Jack Farleigh, reported DeSantis was discovered hiding in a second floor room about 11:30 p.m. He was said to have admitted planning to burglarize the club.

Young To Show Slides At Session

HARRY T. YOUNG, principal of the Polk Township School at Kresgeville, will present colored slides of the Alaskan Highway and Alaska at a meeting of the Stroudsburg Methodist Church tomorrow at 8 p.m.

Young took the pictures last summer while on a vacation trip with his wife to points as far north as Fairbanks, Alaska.

The meeting tomorrow night is a joint affair for the Methodist Men's organization and the Faithful Class. The men are invited to take their wives. Refreshments will follow the meeting, which is the last scheduled until fall.

President Charles Marsh has called a meeting of the Faithful Class for one hour before the joint session. Dr. Paul H. Shiffer is president of the Methodist Men.

Tobyhanna Township Holds Annual Program Of Music

POCONO PINES—Elementary pupils of the Tobyhanna Township School presented their annual assembly music program under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Altomose, assisted by the other teachers.

The rhythm band of Room One played two selections, "March of the Classics" and "March of the Choristers."

Room Two's presentations were a duet, "Little Robin Redbreast," by Hope Meulen and Craig Gangaware; a sextette number, "The Robin's Song," by Sharon Keiper, Wendy Wehrle, Sandra Searfoss, Bud Henning, Rodney Siegel and John Holt; and "The Mocking Bird Song" by the third grade.

Joseph Fescina, of Room Three, played an accordion solo, and a song, "I Like to Ride on My Bike," was sung by the class.

Room Four presented three numbers, "The Caisson Song," "The Marine Hymn" and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Car, Truck Collide On Route 611

MOUNT POCONO — Charles Pardo, 27, of 728 E. Seventh St., Bethlehem, received brush burns of the knee when his car and a tractor-trailer collided on Route 611, two miles south of here, at 8 a.m. Saturday.

State Police of the local barracks said Pardo's car struck the rear of a truck driven by George B. Smith, 46, Philadelphia.

Both were traveling north.

Three Teen-Agers Suffer Injuries As Car Upsets On Route 390 In Vicinity Of Hawley

HAWLEY—Three teen-agers were injured when the car in which they were riding failed to negotiate a curve on Route 390 and rolled over about 3:45 p.m. yesterday.

State Police of the Milford barracks identified the driver as Thomas F. DePuy, 16, of 245 Philadelphia Ave., West Pittston. He was treated at Scranton State Hospital for brush burns, scratches and wrenched shoulders and discharged.

William Fulton, 17, of 1119 Walnut St., Allentown, was treated at the hospital for brush burns of the body and discharged.

Joseph Hindmarsh, 15, of 121 Maple St., West Pittston, also a passenger, sustained burns of the head and possible fractured jaw. He was admitted to the hospital and later transferred to a hospital at West Pittston.

Troopers said the 1951 sedan in which the trio was riding was demolished. The accident occurred about 17 miles south of here. The teen-agers were taken to the hospital in the Frey Community Ambulance, South Sterling. It was called by Paul Olsommer of Roemer-ville, who operates a service station near the crash scene.
